

Health Affairs Author Web Links, Reprints & Permissions

Permission Policies

Project HOPE/Health Affairs grants authors the following complimentary permission uses for papers they have authored, provided the use is NOT FOR PROFIT and the following copyright and citation notice is used:

"Copyrighted and published by Project HOPE/Health Affairs as [include the full citation: author name, article title, Health Aff (Millwood). Year of original publication, volume number, issue number, pages]. The published article is archived and available online at www.healthaffairs.org/"

With these conditions, authors may:

- Make and distribute up to 5 copies to research colleagues for personal use, but not commercially or systematically.
- Use for educational purposes (print and electronic course packs).
- Republish article in full or in part in a thesis or dissertation (provided dissertation is not commercially published).
- Link the abstract of the article electronically to a public web site.

Author uses that require explicit publisher permission from Project HOPE/Health Affairs and may include a fee at author rates include:

- Make photocopies of paper to distribute widely (such as meeting or conference use).
- Republish in a book, periodical, report, brochure.
- Link the full article electronically to a public web site – may be set up through RightsLink® at author rates.

Web Links & Copies

Health Affairs' authors may order web links to full text (eprints), obtain permission to make copies, or may license content at discounted author rates via the journal's online permissions service RightsLink®.

To receive an estimate or place an order, simply:

1. Locate the Health Affairs article online at www.healthaffairs.org.
2. Click on the article abstract.
3. Under Services, click on Request Permissions.
4. The following page will be launched:

The screenshot shows the RightsLink interface for a Health Affairs article. The article title is "Formula For Compromise: Expanding Coverage And Promoting High-Value Care". The publisher is Project HOPE, and the date is May/June 2008. A dropdown menu titled "I would like to..." is open, showing options such as "reuse in a book", "reuse in a pamphlet", "link to article/ePrint", and "make photocopies".

5. Select the use you require.
6. Check the "Quick Price" estimate at "Author" rates for web links, or other options of interest.
7. Create a RightsLink® account if you haven't already.
8. Accept the terms and conditions.

If you are purchasing a link or eprint, our web team will contact you between the hours of 9:00 am and 5:00 pm ET with the code needed to establish the link.
